How does this compare to what I could earn and save elsewhere?

At LWBC, we are searching for individuals whose primary motivation for summer service is to serve God and our campers, helping create opportunities for life change through the love of Christ Jesus. While financial gain will not be the motivating factor in spending a summer in ministry, God generously provides for those serving at LWBC.

Since room and board are provided, the majority of your daily living expenses are covered for the summer leaving more to save for future expenses. A vehicle is not necessary for employment. In the event you bring a vehicle to camp, any work-related gas expenses incurred will be compensated.

As a comparison, working 40 hours a week at a $7.25- $10/hour for the entire 9 weeks would result in gross earnings of $2610-$3600. An LWBC summer staffer receives between $2475-$3750 salary plus room and board.
