LWBC Summer Leadership Team (SLT)

A core group of summer staff, designed to intentionally equip and encourage the growth of both the overall summer staff community and the individual summer staffers.

OVERSIGHT: Year-round Staff

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Faith in Jesus Christ and a desire to grow closer to God
- Desire to impact other people for the kingdom of God by sharing the gospel
- Embrace and live out camp's values
- Have the ability to work hard and be flexible
- Leadership experience
- Strongly Preferred: at least one summer of ministry at LWBC

EXPECTATIONS:

Along with fulfilling the duties of their individual job descriptions, the Summer Leadership Team will participate in additional leadership and preparatory training designed to equip them to intentionally lead our summer staff team. The goal is to provide a core group of summer staff who intentionally promote and challenge the growth of the individual and the community as a whole, as well as, challenge the members of SLT to grow in their servant leadership and spiritual walk.

JOB DESCRIPTION:

- Individual job duties as described
- Pre-summer leadership training and preparation (virtual and in-person)
    - Summer commitment begins May 31, 2021
- Enthusiastic and intentional participation in the summer staff and SLT community
- Lead sessions / activities during Staff Development Week as assigned
- Meet weekly with the SLT—including prayer, personal check-ins, brainstorming ideas/to-dos, problem solve
- Meet weekly with a member of the YRS to keep open lines of communication
- Be available and intentional to reach out to and support summer staff
- Faithfully meet one-on-one with summer staff, as assigned
- Help organize staff bonding / events
- Oversee and facilitate breakfast/chapel turn-over each morning in the absence of YRS